BATTING ORDER.

A SORCIERE won the second race at Belmont yesterday — just walked out shead and came safely home to the finish without even taking a look back at the bunch. The betting opened at 5 to 1, but wise money tumbled it down to 5 to 2 before the race started. The public didn't

BY ALLEN SANGREE.

There's a curious story back of this race. La Sorciere belongs to Charlie Rows. He was started in Diok Baker's name. Around the track the horse was a stranger. The clockers never saw La Sorciere. Neither did the agents of the bookies, who keep a sharp eye on preliminary workouts. (Special to The Evening World.)

Fourth laning.

Donlin won great appleuse by killing Seymour's would-be home run. Sebring Seymour's would-be home run. Sebring secured a hit that Gilbert stopped, but could not recover himself for the throw. Barry filed to Browne. Steinfieldt, the slugger, drove one for two bags that Meries could not reach, scoring Sevring. Kelly walked. Bresnahan dropped the fourth ball and Steinfeldt went to third. He came all the way home, but the umpire refused to admit the run. Meries made a bad muff of Fheipe's long drive, scoring Steinfeldt and Kelly and putting Phelps on third. Ewing filed to Donlin. THREE RUNS.

Donlin cut loose with a clean hit past third. Browne chose to swing instead of sacrifice and filed to centre. Jouble play when Barry caught McGann's pop-fly and naifed Donlin at first to Bridewell. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning. er. LOUIS, Mo., May 25.—The races here to-day resulted as follows:

RACE TRACK, BROOKLYN, May 25 .- Delhi won the Brooklyn Handirap at Gravesend this afternoon. Twenty-five thousand people saw the race run. Both great tiers of the grand stand were black with people, leaning forward in their excitement, shouting and shrieking encouragement to their respective choices. On the lawns were massed thousands, hopping up and down like toads in the effort to see over their neighbors' heads and watch the progress of the thrilling last quarter through Though the field was the poorest
